Tribute from Sue French

Relation: niece

RIP Uncle Pete. I will have fond memories of you as our families shared many good times together. My sincere condolences to my cousin Cathey. Also, a huge shout out goes to Cathey who came from the mainland to live with her Dad when he discovered he had a very serious illness. She cared for him 24/7 until he passed, making him delicious meals, taking him on day trips, and making his last months as enjoyable as possible under the circumstances. Last, but not least, she made it possible for him to continue living in his beloved float home in Cowichan Bay. All of the friends at Cowichan Bay know that was not an easy task, but think the world of her for doing so.
Great job Cathey, condolences from your old cousin Sue and the Russell family.

Tribute from Frederic Grimmett

Relation: He was my cousin (in-law)

Pete you were more than just a relative. You and Marnie were my dear friends. Very many cherished memories. Rest in peace my friend. Cousin Fred

Tribute from Judi Bendick

Relation: From Cowichan Bay

I knew Pete to say hello to for many years in the Bay. Always a smile and a “hello”. A nice man, so sorry.
