Tribute from Urbain and Linda Patrick

Relation: friend

Dear Linda, We were very saddened to hear of Rick's passing. We had just returned from a short vacation and received in the mail from my sister, Janice, the announcement from the Times/Colonist. Our thoughts are with you and your family today. We know you will get great comfort from your wonderful children and precious grandchildren. All our very best wishes, Urbain & Linda

Tribute from Mary Kolenosky

Relation: Old Friend and former neighbour

Dear Linda and family,

Just received notification of Rick's passing. We lived next door to each other when we were kids on Armstrong Ave. in Victoria. Arthur, Ricky, Margaret Anne and the rest of the neighbourhood kids all played with each other and we had so much fun. Used to call his parents Auntie Joy and Uncle Cliff as they were my parents best friends on the block. Have many great memories of those times.

Wishing you and your family, Arthur and Margaret Anne our sincere condolences at this time. It will get easier at each day passes and the memories of you life together will always be with you.

Sincerely yours, Mary Kolenosky (nee Mary Jean McKeachie)
