

REMEMBERING
Robert George Melville

January 22, 1941 - September 14, 2012

Our father left us so unexpectedly on September 14th 2012 that we have a hard time believing it is so. He was predeceased by his father (George Melville), mother (Violet nee Loxam), and sister (Helen Jewell). He will be greatly missed by his brother; William (Maureen), daughters Colleen and Brenda (Chris), grandchildren; Scott, Tia, and Breanne, a great friend dear to him, Marjorie (dog Bear), his dog and cat (Brandy and Winston), and many cousins, nieces, and nephews. He was a business man, who owned Tile Town for 38yrs with his dear friend and partner Morgan McGrath and all that worked with or for him will miss him greatly. He was a man that loved to read, work in his garden, his grandchildren, and playing games on his iPad. Dad, have peace without any more pain, love Colleen and Brenda.

In lieu of flowers he would wish you to donate to the TB Vets and Royal Canadian Legion.
