Tribute from Nico Sparkes

Relation: acquaintance

Robin was always very kind to me, respectful, and welcoming as I began to attend a few of his parties. He welcomed me into his living room, his house, at a time when i really needed friends and a place to hang. I remember him once starting up his bike - in the living room - and i remember his laughter and joy as the exhaust and incredible noise filled the space and he even let me sit on the thing as he was revving it up. I had, as many on Gabriola, heard "things" about the famous Robin Lewis, but he always treated me with laughter and love and respect at a time when i really needed it. I will always remember his laugh and his smile, and i thank him for letting me hang with him and his buddies and share his stories. We will miss him.

Fly Free Robin. (Nico, formally known as Colette).
