

REMEMBERING
Ronald Warnock

October 3, 1930 - May 24, 2019

Warnock, Ronald Stuart 88, of Mill Bay, BC Passed away on May 24, 2019

Ronald Stuart Warnock, 88, passed away Friday, May 24, 2019 in Mill Bay, BC.

Born and raised in Fergus, Ontario to Telford and Jean (Masson) Warnock on October 3, 1930, he was a long time resident of Georgetown, Ontario until retiring to BC in 1986.

He began his career as an Architect and later transitioned to teaching Architectural Drafting at Bramalea Secondary School where he imparted his passion for architectural design on his students. Upon retirement, he left the confines of straight lines and rulers to become a respected Watercolor Artist specializing in Land and Seascapes. His beautiful paintings hang in loved ones homes reminding us to appreciate the beauty Ron saw all around. Ron was also a respected musician, playing his beloved clarinet and alto sax in many stage productions throughout Halton and Peel Regions of Ontario, long time member of the Georgetown Revolver Club, and a member of the top ranked Ontario marksman team. Ron's life was a life well lived with many interests and lifelong friendships.

A beloved family man, Ron is survived by his loving partner Sheila McGregor.

Preceded in death by brother Robert and survived by sister Anne (Mike); his three sons

(with first wife Phyllis): John (Florence), Kirk, James (Kelly); Sheila's two sons: David

(Zoie), Paul (Tina); his grandchildren Megan, Emily (Will), Samuel, Olivia, Mackenzie,

Geordie (Warnock) and Devon, Carter, Isabel and Isaac (McGregor), as well as beloved

Aunt Leone Masson and many cousins, nieces and nephews.

Family is privately celebrating Ron's life and his impact on their lives. Memorial donations can be made to the Canadian Diabetes Society or to your local Arts and Cultural Center.

TTFN, Ronnie. We love you.

