Tribute from Mary Jane Gleeson

Relation: old, old friend from Peterborough

To Roselyne's wonderful family. I was so surprised to hear of her passing. My one regret is that we never kept in touch. She was so kind.

She painted my downstairs bathroom and I told her she would probably be paying someone at her house to do this. She laughed. I will never forget her and my heart goes out to all of you. It was an honour to be her friend . A beautiful lady inside and out.

Relation: Kindred Spirits

Dear Derek, Aron, Jon, Fiona and Families,

I am so sorry not to be with you today.

I am remembering the great laughs that Roselyne and I shared.

I am hoping that you will do the same.

She was the best laugh and always up for some fun, hiking, cycling, canoeing, swimming even though she didn't love all those things.

Remember the great times, today and all the tomorrows.

She was my "sister" friend.

Keep in touch and remember the laughter and love that she shared with each of you.

Love Sue

Tribute from John and Pat Wheatley

Relation: Neighbours (6010 Salish Rd)

Dear Derek: Pat and I were shocked and saddened to hear that Roselyne had succumbed to her illness. It must be a grievous loss for you after making such personal sacrifices, these past two years, to secure a long and happy retirement for you both. And then, this.

I was more fortunate than Pat in that I got to know Roselyne quite well, through hiking with her. I too am an immigrant and I admired her for how readily she had subsumed into this our culture. I enjoyed her wisdom and her friendship.

As you know, Pat's and my lives have been in turmoil these past several months, as a consequence of our own actions. When our affairs are back in order, we look forward to seeing you again, perhaps for another bike ride or a hike.

Derek, we send our condolences to you and your family, and extend our best wishes to you all for the future.

Yours sincerely, John Wheatley

I cherish the memory of our meeting. May God's peace be with all of you.

Tribute from Eleanor Kay

Relation: friend & from Peterborough

Just learned of Roselyn's passing and am shocked and saddened as it was not that long ago we communicated. I have such fond memories of our time together in Peterborough and the long chats we shared during our running days. Roselyne was a cherished friend to everyone who had the privilege to know her and spend time with her and was the beneficiary of her generosity and kindness. She will be missed by all who knew her but especially by her family who meant the world to her. She left us too soon but may the legacy and memory of her time with you live forever in your hearts. My thoughts and prayers are with all of you at this very difficult time.

Tribute from Tom Bell
