Tribute from Gael Ellis

Relation: Friend

I wish to express my deepest sympathy. The Bible gives a comforting promise that your loved one will come to life again on a beautiful earth when death will be no more in John 5:28, 29 and Revelation 21:4.

Tribute from Katrina Grounds

Relation: Friend

Such a painful loss that is reverberating in the hearts and minds of all who knew her.
Hers was a gentle soft-spoken manner, but her words always came from her heart, chosen with such care and kindness. And her smile? Beyond beautiful, truly a gift to receive one.
She was a beloved friend of our precious child Aidan (Kate). Actually, friend doesn't describe who she was to our child. She was one of their most cherished confidants, a never-ending source of comfort and guidance. She gave them counsel when they needed advice, forever without judgment. And the hijinks they got up to? And trips to Salvation Army Thrift Store? All of these are memories that we carry with us, filled with gratitude for the impact she had on their life and ours.
And when the days were so dark for us, she gifted us with a little bit of light, making time for us when her own heart was broken. A caring heart such as hers was truly a gift.
You are so loved xox

My darling friend,
there aren't any words meaningful enough in this world to express what you meant to me.
Though I wish we could have spent more time together in this world, I am grateful I had the privilege to know you for the time I did.

Nan ch ’uw’ nu stl’i’, tl’e’ tsun tse’ ’uw’ lumnamu, I love you very much, until we meet again.
