Tribute from Marilyn LaPierre

Relation: Through his mother - Barb

What a lovely tribute to a great and generous man, someone to be very proud of indeed. His life was short, but he seems to have lived it well.

Tribute from Colleen Stephenson

Relation: Friends of Scott's mother, Barb

Barb, we are so sorry to hear about your son, Scott. Please know that we are all thinking of you and including you in our prayers. Take care.

Sincerely, your friends at the book club.

Tribute from Nina and John Gnap

Relation: Lisa and Mitch Gosselin

We wish to send our sincere condolences to Scott's family. Scott's sister Lisa has always talked about her brother and his flying adventures. He will be truly missed but also remembered and admired by people he had never met. My husband John and I (Nina) are just two of those people. Our prayers go out to the entire baker families

Tribute from Rob Borovsky and Lisa Yano

Relation: Stepson of Keith Baker

Our sincerest condolences go out to the Baker family. May God bless you all with strength to get through this difficult and sad event.

Although I have not met Scott, (rather I have heard nothing but inspiring accounts about him from Keith and my mom), his gift of life to five other people exemplifies the true nature of his amazing and caring character and spirit.

We will keep Scott and your family in our prayers.

God Bless...

Rob Borovsky and Lisa Yano (in Calgary)

Tribute from Nina and John Gnap

Relation: Lisa and Mitch Gosselin

We never met Scott but feel we know him through his sister Lisa. She spoke of his flying and of the special "flight" in the air he gave them about a year ago. Lisa was very proud of her brother, the pilot. He'll be missed but remembered always, even by people he never met.

Tribute from Frantisek Pech and people from Slovakia

Relation: From my sister Anna Borovsky

It's a big loss. In these days we should meet in Slovakia. We mourn with you. God bless you.

Tribute from Kevin Kempe

Relation: friend of Scott's sister Lisa

All my condolences to Scott's family. Though I never met him, I know through his sister Lisa and other family how much he touched others. It is comforting to know 5 other people now have the chance to live and from this obituary it is obvious how much he will be missed.

Tribute from Lorinna, Joe, Nicholas and Alexandra Borovsky

Our heartfelt condolences go out to Anna, Keith and his family during this time of profound loss. Scott will always occupy a special place in your hearts. By all accounts, Scott will be remembered not by his tragic passing, but fondly remembered by all that had the privilege of knowing him by his life's deeds.

Tribute from Lisa (Coombes) Hines

Relation: cousin

Barb; Keith and Anna; Tammy, Lisa and families; April, Jordan and Sacha,
I was so sorry to hear of Scott's passing. I remember Scott as a smiling busy boy. It sounds like he has been busy ever since, building a good life for himself and his family, and being a good and generous friend, and person. Reading the tribute, made me think of Grampy Coombes and how proud he would have been to read about the man that Scott grew up to be. Take care and again so very sorry. Lisa

Tribute from Libby Walker

Relation: friend of Miller family

I have never met Scott but heard of him over the years. Just this year, I went to celebrate April's sister Sandra's birthday. April, Scott and Sasha were enroute home from the United States. Jordan gave us a wonderful tour of the property. It was then I realized that an amazing person he was and how much he cared for his family. I am very sorry for your loss.
