MY CONDOLANCES TO THE FAMILY

---

Tribute from Carol-Ann Rolls

Relation: Relationship - How did you know the deceased?

Eleanor and family, I offer my condolences.
Sean visited the Community Policing office from time to time. He enjoyed looking at the collector RCMP pins and commenting about when your dad was a volunteer.

---

Tribute from Winnifred Darwin

Relation: Worked with his Dad many years at Wal Mart.

Sincere condolences for the families loss.  He is now at peace.

Tribute from Kellie Turner

Relation: Friend

Years ago I knew Sean as a great character who loved to hang out at the Brig in Maple bay. Whether doing odd jobs for Brian, or driving the Rowing Club bus, Sean was always trying to be helpful. Through the years I would see Sean go by on his bicycle, always with a wave and a 'hello.' In March I attended a Haida Gwaii film at the United Church in Duncan. Sean was greeting the arrivals. The youth I was with explained to Sean that she recently found out that her relations are Haida. With that Sean gave the youth a Masset Village pin - her tribal village! Sean's small gift made the youth's night extra special. Thank you Sean! Good to know you. My condolences to Sean's family.

Tribute from Bob and Suzanne Anderson

Relation: From Navy League

We are saddened to hear about Sean's passing. Unfortunately we missed the obituary in the newspaper or we would have attended his service. We knew his dad from Sea Cadets and Sean from Navy League Cadets. Whenever we saw him around town, he always stopped to talk and asked about our family. He was a genuinely nice guy. Our condolences go out to his family.

Tribute from Chris and Rani

Relation: Friends

Chris and Rani send our condolences to Sean's family. We only just heard about Sean's passing and feel terribly sad that he is gone. Sean did gardening work for us and helped us move house a few years back. He has been in and out of our lives over the years and we wish we had spent more time with him. Sean was always up for a good chat and ready to help out with anything. We will miss him.
