Tribute from Pauline Jackson

Relation: Jim and Shirley are cousins of ours.

To our dear cousins Jim and family members, Shirley was an inspiration to Gary and I both. Shirley always cared about the people that she had when she met them. She had a loving and caring spirit and we loved her for that in her. May God keep her in his heaven and when we all get together we will see you Shirley again. Take care Jim and know that she was a special lady to you and Mother and Grandmother to family. We will miss our little talks with her at the Save on foods grocery store. But again Jim take care of yourself now. Love Gary and Pauline.

Relation: Auntie/Niece

You're not supposed to have favourites but then Auntie Shirly wasn't just your regular Auntie. Her kindness was a warm hug, her sweetness was better than any sweet you can imagine. And when Auntie Shirly greeted you with "hello Honey" or "hello Beautiful"well, you just melted in her embrace.
I'll miss you my darling Auntie

My sincere condolences to the family and friends of Shirley Karr (Baines). I went through elementary and high school with Shirley in Chemainus. She was a quiet but thoroughly nice person liked and respected by all who knew her. From our property, overlooking the Chemainus estuary, we could see the house where Shirley and her family used to live on one of the outer islands. To get to school, in the early days, Shirley, her brothers and sister Rose, had to row over to the Sunders' property and then walk about a kilometer up to the Horseshoe Bay Inn to catch the school bus. It was all taken in stride and I never once heard Shirley complain about the challenge of simply getting to school. I am sure this determination served her well in life. My sympathies to everyone.
