REMEMBERING

Sylvia Carol Hunt

Died: September 30, 2026

Sylvia Carol Hunt passed away peacefully at the age of 78 on September 30, 2026, following her journey with breast cancer. She leaves behind a legacy of love, determination, generosity, and vibrant community spirit.

Carol is survived by her children Tony Hunt, Jeff (Janelle) Hunt, and Meggan (Jason) Oliver, and their father, Richard Hunt. She was the cherished Nana of seven grandchildren—Teagan, Griffin, Cooper, Ella, Benson, Rachel, and Ava—who brought her tremendous joy.

Carol was predeceased by her parents, John and Lois Phillips (née Wellburn). She is survived by her brothers Patrick (Anne) Phillips, Eric (Joanne) Phillips, and Brian (Jane) Phillips, and her sister Jocelyn (Derek) Bjornson.

A long-time resident of the Cowichan Valley, Carol also lived in Metchosin and Victoria. She lived with passion and purpose and had many talents, always finding ways to share them with others. Over the years, she worked as a teacher, owned a wool store, and was an avid gardener. She was also a dedicated volunteer with Cowichan Seniors and Cowichan Hospice.

Carol made a lasting contribution to the community she loved. Her involvement in projects such as the Cowichan Sportsplex and Abbeyfield House reflected her belief in creating places and opportunities to bring people together and enrich the lives of others.

Family, friends, and an active life brought Carol great happiness. She loved travelling, quilting, knitting, gardening, and sharing a glass of wine with good company. She enjoyed sports throughout her life, including golf, tennis, pickleball, cycling and field hockey. Above all, she treasured time spent with her family and friends.

Celebration of Life

A Celebration of Life will be held at St. Peter’s Anglican Church Hall,

5800 Church Rd, Duncan, BC V9L 5M3, on Friday, October 16, from 2:00 to 4:30 PM.

In lieu of flowers, donations to Cowichan Hospice would be appreciated.

The family extends their deepest gratitude to everyone who has offered support, kindness, and compassion during this difficult time.

Mum, you were so loved.
