

REMEMBERING Tanya Ball

January 25, 1958 - June 9, 2015

On Tuesday the 9th of June 2015, surrounded by her loving family, Tanya Louise Ball, nee Nobbs, wife, mother, daughter, sister, grandmother was suddenly taken from us. She leaves behind her husband Daryl Ball, her daughter Chandra, grandchildren Brandon, Allana, Emery, Crystal and Sam, her best friend: her mother Lois, her brother Kerry (Denise) and many aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces and nephews. When I first saw you with your smile so tender, my heart was captured, my soul surrendered. - Elvis Presley, It's Now or Never Born in Victoria in 1958 she enjoyed life, always. She became a ballerina and ballet dancing was her life till she had Chandra. She also taught ballet until sadly, the tragedy of an auto accident left her unable to dance. Tanya was one of the most caring people that any of us has had the pleasure to meet. All of her day care children and parents loved her dearly. When she would pick Allana up from school I use to refer to her as the pied piper of children as she was always swarmed by many of them. The kids loved her so much that they would tell their parents to go away or try to close the door on them. She was always there to give advice from her experiences and always had time to be that person that people could confide in. To the end she would say that I can't be sick, there are too many people that depend on me. She stayed true to her caring nature to the end. Memories, pressed between the pages of my mind. Memories, sweetened through the ages just like wine. - Elvis Presley, Memories

When the storms of life are raging

Stand by me

When the world is tossing me
Like a ship out on the sea
Thou who rulest when wanted
Stand by me
When I'm growing old and feeble
Stand by me
When I do the best I can
And my friends misunderstand
Thou who never lost a battle
Stand by me
From the Song Stand By Me by Elvis Presley
