

REMEMBERING
Terrance Wildeman

November 9, 1947 - August 28, 2013

Terry's bright light faded away too soon on August 28, 2013 at home with his family by his side. A man of many amazing talents, he was a welder, carpenter and master builder of log homes. Terr could fix anything and was always willing to lend a helping hand to those in need. Terry was a gifted landscape painter, as well as a talented pool player. One could usually catch him at the local pub making quick work of his competition!

Terry leaves behind his loving wife of 38 years, Normie and three children, Raquel (Charles), Ingrid and Lee (Yana). Nothing brought such a prideful twinkle to his eyes quite like spending time with his two loving granddaughters, Ariel and Kaylee. Pre-deceased by his parents Edward and Margaret. Terry was the eldest of 5 children, Aubrey, Rob, Kevin and Lorraine. T also leaves behind many loving friends, nieces and nephews, favorite Aunty Eldeen, special nephew Rob Jr., and loving mother in-law Kay McMillen.

Terry, aka T-dog, T-bone, and Mad-dawg is also remembered for his quick wit, and love of wearing t-shirts with kooky catch phrases -"OLD GUYS RULE!" Seeing him sad to go will also be his recliner, and extensive collection of Steven Seagal/ VanDamme, ABBA and Pink Floyd flicks.

A special thanks to all the wonderful staff at VIHA and H.W. Wallace for all the excellent guidance and support.

We miss you daddy, and will forever walk with you in our hearts!

A Reception to honor Terry's life will be held at H.W. Wallace Cremation and Burial Centre, 5285 Polkey Road on Saturday September 7, 2013 between 2:00 and 4:00 p.n.
