Dear family & friends,

Please accept my sincere condolences.

I did not know Tracy personally, but I do know the hurt & loss that comes from the death of a loved one.

I have found much comfort in the Bible and the hope it holds out of being re-united with our dead loved ones again in the near future.

It has been promised that soon " a loud voice from the throne will say: "Look! The tent of God is with mankind, and he will reside with them, and they will be his peoples. And God himself will be with them. And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." Revelation Chap. 21:3-4

My prayer is that you too will find hope and comfort from this wonderful promise from our loving Heavenly Father.

Sincerely,

Ms. Debbie Turner

Dear Cassie and Georgia. I am so sorry for the loss of your mother. She was truly a beautiful person, outwardly and inwardly. I was one of her patients and she always served me with kindness and a smile. She will be remembered with great fondness. May you feel God's comforting arms surrounding you in the days ahead.
