Such a heart breaking-loss for this world and especially devastating for the Winters family! Trever was such a kind, funny, lighthearted, (not to mention handsome), all around good human. Tribute from Trevor Kushner

Relation: Friend

I’m still having a hard time believing this news.
We grew up together, from Little League to many years playing hockey, and had the privilege of working together at the City of Duncan public works. So many years, so many memories, and a friendship that I will always treasure.
He was an incredible teammate, coworker and a loyal friend, and he could literally light up the room with his smile and laugh. They simply don't make them like Buddha anymore. I feel very fortunate to have shared so much of life with him.
I'm so sorry Julie, Max and Jacob. I just hope it helps a little knowing he had such a profound impact on so many people.
You’ll be missed my friend. Rest easy Shooters #13.

I'm so incredibly sorry for your loss! Buddha was larger than life! A big light in this world with a great heart and sense of humour. Loved getting to spend lots of time with him, Juice and the boys in Renfrew! Sending hugs and much love.

Tribute from Samantha

Sending my condolences to Buddha's family and friends. I was lucky enough to meet him on the ball field many years ago- and kept in touch randomly throughout the years in town. He has always been such a genuine, kind man, always smiling. Our last conversation was about his boys. Rest easy good man.

Tribute from Brad Davies

Relation: Childhood friend

Sending love and a great big hug to Trevor's family and all who knew and loved him. Unfortunately I didn't get to see him often after our school years and playing minor hockey together as my life led me away from the Cowichan Valley, but I cherished every time I did get to catch up with him chat about life. Trevor would always welcome me with a great big smile and an awesome chat. He was one of the good ones and will be missed.

Dear Winter Family,

There are not enough words to describe how truly sorry we are for your loss.

Trevor was a one of a kind; always willing to take the time to talk no matter how busy he was.

We have many fond memories with the Winter Family on the baseball field. Our son, Brandon, was very fortunate to have Buddha as his coach. Brandon learned a great deal including teamwork, pitching skill, and most importantly confidence. We will always be grateful to Buddha and we will treasure our baseball memories.

Julie, Max and Jake, our thoughts and prayers are with all of you during this difficult time. May it bring you some comfort knowing that your loved one truly made a difference in this world, and that he will never be forgotten.

Our deepest condolences,

Much Love and Hugs,

Corey, Rick, Brandon and Dylan Langer
