Tribute from H.W. Wallace Cremation & Burial Centre

H.W. Wallace Cremation & Burial Centre staff send our condolences to family and friends.

Tribute from Karen Turcotte

Relation: Daughter

I can't put into words how devastating the loss of both of our parents is to me, losing dad just 3 weeks after mom has been very difficult for all of us. The one thing that is helping me through this very difficult time is knowing in my heart that he is where he wanted and needs to be which is beside our mom. I will miss him forever and will remember the wonderful times that we all spent together as a family especially the last 11 years that he was here with us. I will be eternally grateful for the many memories and hilarious stories that I can now pass on to our children and grandchildren

Tribute from Joel, Stacy and Avery

Relation: Grandson/granddaughter/great grandson

Dearest grandma and grandpa

Our family is devastated by the loss of both of you especially so close together but we understand that you couldn't be apart for very long. The love you 2 shared was inseparable and what we all hope to have. We will miss you two dearly and we won't be the same without you here. The memories we've all made together are ones we will always cherish and treasure. You've helped mold the people we've become and the families we've made of our own. We hope that you are in each other's arms again. Holding each other tight, sharing the love that couldn't be broken and are back to great health. We hope that you look down at us, laugh and smile with us and wrap your wings around us when we need you the most but can't see you here. We will feel your presence when the sunshines on our faces or when a gentle breeze blows on a hot day. Please know that we are all broken right now as you both are no longer here. We love and miss you so much that our hearts can't comprehend the pain but one day we'll be able to smile and laugh again because you'll always be in our hearts, you'll always be apart of each and every one of us. We pray that you feel the love we have for both of you. Rest easy

Tribute from Valerie Sound

Relation: Daughter

Dad, you taught me acceptance, compassion, humour and the ability to love with all my heart. You brought me up to be strong and independent so even though my heart is broken right now I know that I will be okay. You and Mom are in each other's arms again and that is as it should be. I am so grateful for all the memories, the stories and the times we all got to share. You are a part of all of us.
Goodbye Dad, I love you

Tribute from Jacquandra (Jaye) Miller

Relation: Cousin

I am so sad to hear of my cousin Vincent's passing. So soon after Theresa.....but I'm sure they wanted it this way!!!!

I had a wonderful visit with a lot of you when your Aunt Shirley from New Zealand was in Vancouver a few years ago, and I came from Puce / Belle River to see her we took the ferry across to spend an afternoon with Vincent and Theresa and your lovely family.

For many years, I worked with Theresas sister Phyllis Gerard at Green Giant in Tecumseh and always kept up on your family news that way.

Sleep easy kids knowing your Mom and Dad are together again! Maybe we will all meet again.

Tribute from Shirley O'Leary

Relation: He was my younger brother.

It is with great sadness that I say goodbye to my little brother. I cannot believe that this has happened so close to the going of his lovely wife. The memories I have of Vincent are too numerous to tell, but they are all wonderful memories. He was so helpful to me when we had the restaurant at Youbou, and used to come and help with functions whenever he could. While he and the family were there, we always took the opportunity to have a good family visit. Goodbye my darling. You are now with your love of a lifetime and happy I know. I love you so much.

Tribute from Sandi Hancock

Relation: Daughter

Dad

Although I am devastated by the loss of you and Mom so close together, I know you just could not be apart. You were Mom's one true love and she was yours. I hope you are wrapped safely in each others arms. My heart feels so broken right now but I know it will heal. There will be days of laughter and some of tears. You raised a beautiful family Dad, who will love you always. Love you Dad, forever and a day.

Tribute from Karyn Sorrel O'leary

Relation: Niece

Condolences to all the family for your double loss. We are left with memories only, but they are good ones. Vincent was a larger than life character, and Teresa was never far from his side in all their ventures. Thinking of you all at this time, and hoping you are close enough to support each other as you adjust to not having your mom and dad any longer.

Tribute from Sally Wilson

Relation: Cousin

My condolences go out to you on the loss of your Dad, so close to the loss of your Mom. We never saw Vince as much as we would of liked, but even as a small kid he always left me with a memory that I hold to this day. So glad that Shirley J and I where able to visit with the family when we where west. He with always be fondly remembered

Tribute from Joe Gallop

Relation: Brother

I was so shocked and saddened to hear that you had left us to be once again united with your beloved Theresa. But I do understand that the pain of her loss a few short week ago was just too much to bear. I will miss you, Big Brother, as will all your loving family, but memories of enjoyable times together will remain forever.

Tribute from Nancy LaBelle

Relation: Niece

Dear cousins Sandra, Valerie, Karen and Mike and your families,

In reading all the lovely remembrances of Uncle Vince already posted, we have to agree that he is where he wanted to be - together forever with Aunt Theresa. A love so strong and deep meant they could not be separated for long.

Our thoughts and prayers are with you all as you manage this unimaginable grief and loss.

We will raise a toast to Uncle Vince and remember him with great fondness and affection. I am sure Dad (your Uncle Roland) has welcomed him with open wings and is so happy to be reunited with his brother.

Our hearts are with you all.
Love, Nancy and Skip LaBelle

Tribute from Mike Gallop

Relation: Son

It's easy to picture our father strolling through heavens gate and god asking 'so what do you think?' Dad answering 'you know my kid told me this was all a bunch of bullshit' and god replying 'and what kid was that?'

Humour and laughter were the cornerstones of his soul. Humble enough to laugh at himself, but better yet if it came at the expense of family and friends.

If those who knew him well had a dollar for every laugh shared we'd all be kajillionaires!

In regards to cherished ones who have passed on before him and who unfortunately will not be sharing quality time at his present location.

I'm sure he will be expecting nothing less than regular deliveries of hot meals sent up.

That's just the kind of guy he is and sometimes a pain in the ass.

Tribute from Maureen O'Leary

Relation: Niece

My thoughts are with you all as you deal with the loss of Vincent so soon after Teresa. They are together again. Remember the good times and be there for each other during this difficult time.
