Tribute from Michelle Thurlow

Relation: Through work

Dear Pierre and family, Blaine and I worked with Wendy over the years and spoke with her at the luncheons from the board. From the first moment I met her, I knew she had a kind soul. Her love for helping the underprivileged was apparent and I always wondered why she would care so much. Now I understand that she had fulfillment in her life because of this. Life is not about making money but feeling good about yourself when you are by yourself. I will miss her immensely. Goodbye my darling, Wendy. See you in heaven. Lots of love.

Tribute from Jane Bryony-Shaw

Relation: Friend

Wendy, I loved your energy and enthusiasm for life and the way you met it head on with love; generosity of spirit; laughter; joy and your unique and glamorous sense of style. From our first meeting in Dawson Creek in September 1969, to a recent lengthy and enjoyable conversation on the phone in March this year, I have considered you as not just a friend, but as part of a wider connectedness as 'family'. In England at present, I was in one of my favourite churches (the 'cathedral of the moors' in Widecombe in the Moor, Devon) , last week on Good Friday. I said a prayer of love for you and lit a candle. You will always be remembered in my heart.

Tribute from Robert Malbon

Relation: Family friend

Pierre and family, I am so sorry to hear of Wendy's passing. Wendy was more than our family realtor, she was also a wonderful friend and colleague to my wife, Marie. She will be greatly missed by all who knew her.

Tribute from Kim and Dan Walters

Relation: Family realtor and friend

Pierre and family, sending you huge hugs and our sincere condolences. We are so sorry to hear of Wendy's passing. Wendy was a kind and beautiful soul. We appreciate the care and professionalism she gave to my brother, Neil in the purchase of his home. Neil enjoyed chatting with Wendy and getting to know both of you. We feel blessed to have known her, even if only for a short time. She will be greatly missed by all who knew her.

Tribute from Cathie Jeffrey

Relation: Fellow Realtor

To Wendy's family and closest at heart, I am so sorry for your loss, and offer my sincere condolences. I knew Wendy in passing through business, and from the occasional chat at Board luncheons during my years as a Valley agent. However, as will be no surprise to those who knew her best, she left a lasting impression with me, and hers is often the soft voice in my head encouraging me to just ...do SOMETHING. Doesn't have to be grand, but it will be meaningful. I would love to think she's left a legacy, in part, as thousands of tiny sparks within those of us who had the privilege of meeting her. May she rest in peace.
